Pacific College

A Liberal Arts College

Pacific College is exclusively a college of liberal arts and sciences. It has no preparatory department, and does not undertake to do graduate work. It confines its task definitely to four years of undergraduate work leading to the bachelor's degree.

A Standard College of Oregon

Pacific College has always maintained an enviable record for scholarship. But in addition to scholarship, a college needs the sort of financial security which will guarantee its permanence and continued efficiency. In 1925 Pacific College had added to its scholarship provisions a sufficient financial foundation so that in that year it was recognized by the United States Bureau of Education as a standard college of Oregon.

The matter of standardization is sometimes very much misunderstood. It means recognition, not uniformity. It means that the graduate of the standard college can teach in the standard high schools and colleges of Oregon and other states without examination, if he has taken the proper educational courses; it means that he can take his credits to another college or university and have them received at face value; it means recognized admission to graduate schools, professional schools, etc., on the basis of his diploma, and on a par with graduates of other recognized institutions of higher education. It does not mean that some outside authority is dictating just what shall be taught, and how it shall be taught. The individual college is free to determine its own policy, its own courses of study, its own methods, and may maintain its own peculiar traditions and ideals without fear of outside interference.

The Aims of Pacific College

Pacific College, maintained by the Society of Friends (Quakers) of Oregon Yearly Meeting, is a Christian college whose purpose from its very organization has been "a liberal education, under the best Christian influence, at a minimum expense." It offers the work of a college of liberal arts and sciences leading to the A. B. or B. S. degree under influences that are wholesome and definitely Christian during those years when character is so rapidly developing and crystalizing into its permanent form.

With the clearest recognition of the importance, the indispensable, of our system of public education, primary, secondary, normal, university, etc., Pacific College undertakes to do what public educational institutions do not and in the nature of things cannot undertake to do. The Christian college not only seeks to give as thorough an education in the ground which it covers as the state institution can give, with as much care both for the body and the mind as a state-supported institution can bestow; but it places greater emphasis upon the moral and spiritual development than a state school can well do, and it seeks to give definite and positive help to its students in a religious way which the state school cannot officially undertake, in view of the many forms of religion represented, not only among its students, but among the citizens who support it.

Pacific College seeks to be definitely and positively Christian. It seeks to bring its students to an acceptance of Jesus Christ as personal Savior and Lord. It seeks to help its students to a definite dedication of life to the service of Christ, and to that incoming of the divine Spirit without whose help the fullest service to God and to humanity is impossible. It seeks to assist its students to find their work in life, and at least to begin their definite preparation for it. It emphasizes constantly the ideal of service rather than selfishness, and of character as well as scholarship.

Integrating Course

One of the most vital aims of Christian higher education is the integrating of personality and life. To this end it is important that the knowledge which is acquired in college be integrated, and that the work of the college be always of such a character that it is not a thing apart from the life which the student is to live after graduation, but a definite preparation for that life. This means vastly more than mere preparation to make a living.

The teachers of Pacific College are constantly seeking the proper correlation of the work of the various departments of instruction. And in every department there is an earnest effort to relate the work of the classroom to human life. But to add to the effectiveness of this effort, an integrating course has been adopted, running through the entire four years of college work, and prescribed for all students.

The Freshmen will have a general introductory course on Contemporary Civilization, which will serve as a background for all studies in the Social Sciences. Not only will the development of the world be studied historically, but the student will be introduced to the world as it is today, its races, religions, nations, governments, civilizations, economic and industrial conditions, etc.

The Sophomores will have a course in World Literature, the aim being an intelligent understanding and an aesthetic appreciation of the literary products of the peoples of the earth in various ages, including the work in English, old and new.

The Juniors will have an introductory course in Sociology, followed by a study of Social Problems, and including an especial study of the Family.

The Seniors will have a course in which Philosophy and Ethics will be combined, with an especial effort to bring the work of the entire college course into vital relation with the individual and social problems of personal attitudes, ethical standards, religious experiences, social relations, service to humanity, etc.

These courses are described in further detail elsewhere.

History of the College

Religion and education have always gone hand in hand in the development of America. This has been markedly true in the work of the Friends church; and the work of Friends in the great Pacific Northwest has been no exception to this rule.

When Friends first came to the Willamette Valley, they immediately instituted provisions for the education of their children. Their first school was held in the humble home of one of the pioneers. As rapidly as possible better and better facilities were provided, before the public schools offered any opportunity for an education in this part of Oregon. In 1885 Friends Pacific Academy was organized, a school of secondary grade. By the year 1891 there was a demand for more advanced work still, and in that year the institution was enlarged to college rank. (The preparatory department was continued until the year 1929-30, but with the graduation of the Academy Class of 1930 all work below college grade was discontinued, and the work of the institution is now confined to that of full college grade.)

The basic organization of the college is the Pacific College Corporation, whose members are nominated by the College Board, the Alumni, and the Corporation itself.

The College Board of Managers is elected by the College Corporation on nomination of the Board itself, Oregon Yearly Meeting through its Permanent Board, and the Alumni Association.

The College Board elects the faculty, in whom is invested the direct control of the work of the College.

While denominational in auspices, maintained by the earnest labor and sacrifice of its friends and under the direction and care of the Friends church, Pacific College is not sectarian in policy. Annual reports are prepared by the college management and submitted to Oregon Yearly Meetings of Friends, and this body appoints a visiting committee whose duty it is to visit the college frequently, to keep in touch with the work and to offer any suggestion, advice or encouragement they deem proper. But though thus related to Friends, the college is open to all young people of good character and adequate preparation on an equal basis.

Pacific College is the child of Christian sacrifice, and its success is due to the enterprise and generosity of its friends, who have faithfully stood by it from the first, many of whom have made sacrifices nothing less than heroic to maintain the school, and are still making such sacrifices to make the college still more successful and efficient in the coming years.

College Management

The college is controlled by the Board of Managers, fifteen in number, divided into three classes, each serving three years. Two-fifths of this Board are nominated by the Board itself, two-fifths by the Permanent Board of Oregon Yearly Meeting and one-fifth by the Alumni Association. The Board of Managers, of which the president is a member ex-officio, has general charge of the college, electing the members of the faculty, administering the finances, conferring degrees and outlining the general policy.

To the faculty is delegated all the details of college work in instruction and discipline. They also recommend to the board those suitable to receive degrees and certificates.

The administration of the college endowment funds is in the hands of a committee consisting at present of the president of the College Board of Managers, the college treasurer, and three able and judicious business and professional men of the city of Newberg. Great care is taken to make only the best and safest investments of the college's endowment funds.

Equipment

The work of Pacific College is done in five buildings on a campus of over 23 acres, at the edge of Newberg.

The buildings consist of Wood-Mar Hall, the main college building; Canyon Hall, the dormitory for women; the original college building, used as a dormitory for men; a chemistry building erected in 1922; and the gymnasium.

These buildings, with the athletic field, occupy the front half of the campus. The rear of the campus is a beautiful wooded canyon, through which runs a stream and in which there are excellent opportunities to study birds, trees, flowers, etc.

The main college building, Wood-Mar Hall, which was named in honor of Mrs. Amanda M. Woodward and Mrs. Evangeline Martin, who had so much to do with the raising of the funds for its erection, contains most of the rooms for recitations, the auditorium, the library, the museum, the administration offices, etc.

Kanyon Hall, besides the rooms for the women students and the dean of women, contains the student parlors and the kitchen and dining room.

The old college building contains the rooms for the men students and the governor of the dormitory, and the south wing of the building has additional class rooms, the biological laboratory and the music studio. This is the building in which Herbert Hoover, late president of the United States, was a student in the early years of Pacific.

The gymnasium was originally built by the students themselves, and has later been greatly enlarged and improved by the enterprise of the student body. It is used by both the men and women of the college, basketball and volley ball being the chief indoor sports, aside from regular gymnasium training which is provided for all students. All Freshmen and Sophomores are required to take physical training work unless specially excused. Two years of physical culture are required for college graduation.

The library contains nearly 10,000 volumes, an unusually large share of which are of recent purchase. In addition to Pacific College's own equipment, students have the benefit of the Newberg Public Library, which is near at hand, and of the State Library at Salem and the Portland Public Library, with both of which a liberal borrowing arrangement exists.

The laboratory equipment is being constantly increased, and adequate apparatus is provided for the courses offered in the various sciences.

Student Activities

A large part of the education of all students consists in what they do for themselves outside of the regular work of the curriculum. An earnest effort is made to prevent outside interests from interfering with the regular work of the class room, but students are encouraged to participate in the student activities of the college.

There is a student body organization, of which all students are members and under the direction of which many of the activities are carried on.

Independent of this student body organization are the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations. These contain in their membership nearly all of the student body from year to year. In addition to the weekly religious meetings, the associations, jointly or separately, conduct Bible study classes, student prayer meetings, mission study classes, deputation meetings, with services in outlying school houses, neglected meetings and places where the gospel is seldom heard.

There is a keen interest in athletics, football, basketball, baseball, volley ball, tennis and track being the principal sports in which the college has intercollegiate contests.

Each year Pacific College is represented in intercollegiate contests in oratory, extemporaneous speaking and debating. In all these forms of public speaking contests the college has a creditable record.

The International Relations Club, including in its membership both men and women, is organized for the study of international and interracial problems.

Excellent Glee Clubs are maintained for both men and women under the direction of the Music Department. Every year a number of concerts are given, both in Newberg and in other cities.

Under the direction of the Dramatic Director, numerous plays are given by various classes and organizations during the year.

The Trefian Literary Society is an association of women students who are interested in literature and parliamentary usage.

A bi-weekly paper, The Crescent, is published by the student body during the college year. Both news and literary materials find place in this publication, the staff of which are elected by the student body.

Various other student activities are carried on, including a May Day celebration every two years, local and intercollegiate contests in oratory, debating, extemporaneous speaking, etc., and intramural tournaments in tennis, basketball, volley ball, baseball, etc.

A point system has been adopted to guard against the danger of capable and popular students being burdened with too much extra-curricular work and responsibility.

Conduct of Students

Every student is expected to be diligent in study and to deport himself in an orderly, courteous and moral manner, both in the college and off the campus. When a student enters the college he agrees in writing to have due regard for all the regulations of the institution. All the requirements are designed to promote the welfare of the college community. It is intended to allow the fullest liberty consistent with efficient work. It is taken for granted that the purpose of college attendance is earnest, persistent work, and that social enjoyment must always be subordinate to the regulations made for the accomplishment of the most efficient work. The patronage of students who are already seriously demoralized is not solicited. When the faculty is satisfied that a student is not properly carrying on his work, his parents or guardian will be notified of the fact, and then, if there is no reformation, his removal from college will be requested.

The same course will be pursued when a student does not seem to be benefited by the advantages offered or shows an unwillingness to assist cheerfully in maintaining good order, or indulges in practices judged to be detrimental to himself and others or to the reputation of the college. In cases where flagrant offenses are committed, the student may be immediately dismissed.

From the time of its organization the authorities of the college have sought to provide a place of education free from the use of intoxicants and tobacco, dancing, card playing, profanity, etc. Those who practice these things will not be permitted to remain as students, and those who cannot cheerfully forego them and seek earnestly to conform to the standards of Pacific College are requested not to apply for admission.

Regular church attendance is expected of all students, though the college assumes no responsibility in this matter for students who live in their own homes. There are a number of excellent churches in Newberg, where students find a warm welcome.

Those who represent Pacific College in intercollegiate affairs, athletic and public speaking contests, etc., are required to maintain an adequate standard both of scholarship and character. A minimum of twelve semester hours carried with success, with satisfactory character and conduct, is required of a representative of the college in all cases, and a still higher standard is necessary in some activities.

The faculty represents a board of control in regard to matters of discipline, and is authorized to suspend or dismiss a student whenever, in its judgment, such action would be for the best interests of the college.

Recitations and Lectures

The average work of a student is sixteen hours of recitation per week. In all laboratory courses, two hours or more of laboratory work are required as an equivalent of one hour in recitation, experiments being written up outside of the period if it is only two hours in length. Not more than sixteen nor less than fourteen hours of work per week are permitted to any student without special permission of the faculty. A careful record is kept of the attendance and scholarship of each student. In order to complete any work, the student must attain a grade of at least 75.

Students entering late will be expected to take less work than if they had entered at the beginning of the semester.

Semester grades are made from daily recitations, written tests and final examinations. All work missed on account of absence from class is required to be made up. In case of unexcused absences, the student receives no credit for the recitations missed.

Dormitory Life

The life in the college dormitories is one of the distinctive features of Pacific College. It is the aim of the school to furnish for students from outside of Newberg an environment as nearly like that of the Christian home as possible.

The number of dormitory rooms is limited and application for rooms should be made as early as possible to secure accommodations. Room rent is payable monthly in advance. When not so paid an extra charge of 50 cents per month will be made.

DORMITORY FOR YOUNG WOMEN—This building, commonly known as Canyon Hall, is a two-story and basement structure, with rooms for 25 to 30 girls. The rooms are large, each furnished with single beds, mattresses, pillows, table, chairs, and electric lights, with a wardrobe in each room. Students are expected to provide their own bedclothing, towels, napkins, etc., all of which should be properly marked. Each floor has a bath room with hot and cold water, and the building is heated by furnace and lighted by electricity throughout. In addition to the rooms for students, there are student parlors and living rooms for the matron on the first floor and the basement is occupied by the kitchen and the student dining room.

The cost of rooms in this hall is from $1.00 to $1.50 per week for each student where two share a room, or from $1.50 to $2.25 per week where one occupies a room alone.

DORMITORY FOR YOUNG MEN—The dormitory for young men is located in the Old College building. Each room is furnished with single beds, with mattresses, pillows, table, chairs, etc., with a large wardrobe for each room. Students are expected to provide their own bed-clothing, towels, napkins, etc., all of which should be properly marked. The bath room contains a large shower bath, with hot and cold water. The building is furnace heated and electric lighted.

Room rent is from $1.50 to $2.25 where a student rooms alone, or $1.00 to $1.25 each where two students room together.

While all the liberty is given the students consistent with moral safety and good school work, the college undertakes to look carefully after the students placed in its care, especially those who reside in the dormitories. Students are not expected to be away from the dormitories at night without consent, and their physical, social and moral interests are constantly guarded.

Where special arrangements are made by parents or guardians, and for just cause, students whose homes are distant from the college may board in private families which co-operate with the faculty in carrying out the regulations of the college; but students will not be permitted to board in families where such co-operation is not freely given. Students from a distance should not make arrangements to live outside the dormitories without consent of the college authorities.

If at any time it is deemed advisable the college may require a student living in a home not his own to become a dormitory student.

Boarding

Board in the college dormitories the coming year will be at the rate of $3.50 pre week.

Pro-rata reductions are made where three or more successive meals are missed provided proper notice is given in advance.

Expenses

It is the constant aim of the college to keep the expenses of the students down to the lowest point practicable.

The regular tuition for the college is $50 per semester. A pro rata increase is made in tuition charges in case more than the regular amount of work is taken.

A discount of five per cent is allowed where a full year's tuition is paid in advance.

The tuition charge for less than fourteen hours work in the college is $3.75 per semester hour.

For each student there is a charge of $2.00 each semester for library fee.

A student affairs fee of $3.00 per semester is charged each student, this plan having been proposed by a unanimous vote of the student body. This entitles the student to admission to all athletic events, oratorical contests, etc., conducted by the student body, subscription to the college paper, etc.

Fees are charged in laboratory courses to cover cost of materials, etc. The fee for the regular college laboratory course is $5.00 per semester, with breakage extra. (There is a special fee of $1 in the courses in General Psychology and Methods of Teaching).

A deposit of $3.00 per semester will be required of each student of chemistry, to cover breakage. Any of this fee not actually used will be refunded at the close of the semester.

A graduation fee of $5.00 is payable to the treasurer of the college by each member of the Senior class before June 1.

All college bills, including tuition, room rent, library and laboratory fees, etc., are payable in advance, and every student is required to settle with the treasurer at the beginning of each semester. Students whose bills are partially or wholly provided for in some other way should nevertheless report the same to the treasurer promptly at the opening of the semester, that he may understand their position and adjust their accounts. There is a registration fee of $1.00, which is remitted if the registration is completed, including the payment of tuition, on the regular registration days. Fees should be paid promptly in cash at the beginning of the semester, whatever arrangements are made for tuition.

Sons and daughters of ministers and missionaries of any evangelical denomination who are in active service as such, are required to pay only half the regular tuition.

An extra fee of $1.00 or more is charged for each special examination, unless for special reason this fee is remitted by the faculty. This fee is to be paid to the treasurer and receipt presented to the teacher at the time the examination is taken.

Special arrangements must be made and tuition adjusted for work done outside of regular classes under faculty direction.

Grades must be withheld from students whose college bills are not paid in full.

Summary of Expenses

The following is an estimated summary of the necessary expenses for the college year:

Tuition	$100.00
Library Fee	4.00
Student Affairs Fee	6.00
Board and Room	$162.00 to $216.00

Total $272.00 to $326.00

To this must be added the laboratory fees, as noted elsewhere, and the expenses for books and laundry. It will be seen that expenses are made as light as possible, so as to bring the advantage of the college within the reach of all.

Refund of Tuition

When a student receives honorable dismissal during a semester on account of his own long-continued illness, tuition will be charged only for that part of the semester during which he was able to be in attendance, at the rate of six per cent of the semester's tuition for each week or part of a week he was able to be present.

When a student in good standing as to conduct and scholarship voluntarily withdraws during a semester, he will be entitled to honorable dismissal and refund of tuition for that semester on the following basis:

Refund of three-fourths of the tuition if the student withdraws before the beginning of the third week of the semester.

Refund of one-half of the tuition if the student withdraws before the beginning of the fifth week of the semester.

Refund of one-fourth of the tuition if the student withdraws before the beginning of the seventh week of the semester.

No refund of tuition in case of voluntary withdrawal after the beginning of the seventh week.

No refund of library fees, student affairs fees or laboratory fees at any time.

No refund of tuition or fees in case of expulsion, suspension, or dishonorable dismissal on account of misconduct or unsatisfactory scholarship, nor when the withdrawal of the student is due to dismissal for any cause by faculty action.

Financial Aid

The college desires to encourage self-supporting students, and many such are enrolled every year. Assistance is rendered to students in obtaining employment in the town, and those who desire to aid themselves in this way can generally find the opportunity. No capable young man or young woman possessed of good health and a determination to secure a college education need fail in the attempt. The college has, with a single exception, abandoned the giving of scholarships, but has been generous in the opportunities it has offered to students to work for the college in payment of tuition or other college expenses. The same policy will be followed the coming year.

Through the generous gift of Robert A. Booth of Eugene and the gifts of students of the college, there is a Student Loan Fund of over $1,3000 available to college students.

There is also an Alumni Loan Fund available for loans to apply on tuition only.

The Hinshaw Loan Fund is available to upper classmen, for the payment of tuition only.

The help provided for students through the National Youth Administration will again be available if the present policy is continued by the Federal government.

The benefits of any such aid will be withdrawn from students whose conduct is not satisfactory or who fail to maintain a reputable standing in their classes. Application for aid in any of the above forms should be made to the president of the college as early as possible.

Scholarship and Prizes

A scholarship in the college is given each year to the student having the highest rank for scholarship and character graduating from Greenleaf Academy. This is good for the regular Freshman tuition of the year following Academy graduation.

Each year the college board gives a prize of a half year's tuition to the student of the Junior class deemed by the faculty to be the most worthy on account of scholarship and character.

Each year the winner of the Old Pulpit Extemporaneous Speaking Contest has his or her name engraved on a brass plate on the front of the first pulpit ever used in Newberg.

The member of the Senior class deemed most worthy by the faculty is awarded class honors entitling this graduate to a year's scholarship in one of the eastern Friends' colleges.

The Peace Association of Friends in America offers each year a first prize of $25 and a second prize of $10 for a Pacific College Peace oratorical contest.

The student body has an extensive system of awards to those who do distinctive service for the college in intercollegiate contests. College letters, pins, sweaters, blankets, etc., serve as incentives and mementoes of success in athletics, public speaking, etc.

Terms of Admission

The following minimum entrance requirements have been adopted by all the institutions of higher education in Oregon, the applicant securing admission to college under one of three plans.

Plan A—Fifteen units from a four year high school, including five sequences, with at least two majors and three minors, of which not less than a major (three units) and two minors (of two units each) shall be in the departments of English, Foreign Language, Social Science, Mathematics, and Laboratory Science, with at least a major in English; or, twelve units from a senior high school, including four sequences of at least two majors and two minors, of which not less than one major and two minors shall be in the above departments, with one of the sequences in English.

Plan B—Fifteen units from a four year high school, not less than ten of which shall be in the departments of English, Foreign Language, Social Science, Mathematics, and Laboratory Science, with at least three units of English; or, twelve units from a senior high school, not less than eight of which shall be in the departments mentioned, with at least two units of English.

Plan C—Fifteen units from a four year high school, presented by a student of exceptional ability as demonstrated by superior achievement in preparatory work, including the classification of the student in the upper quartile of the graduating class, and the unreserved recommendation of the high school principal, and, if desired by the college, by the securing of a high rating in a college mental test; not less than eight of the fifteen units shall be in the departments of English, Foreign Language, Social Science, Mathematics, and Laboratory Science, with at least three units of English; or, twelve units from a senior high school, not less than seven of which shall be in the departments mentioned, with at least two units of English.

No credit toward college entrance is given under any of these plans for work in Penmanship, Spelling, Physical Education, or any subject classified as a student activity.

In addition to the above uniform minimum requirements each college in the state makes its own additional requirements, in accordance with its own course and program.

Pacific College earnestly seeks to accommodate itself to the situation as it exists in the high schools, where often the student does not secure what is commonly called the college preparatory course, but advises that the following be presented:

English, three or four units.

History and Civics, two units.

Mathematics, two units (Algebra and Plane Geometry).

Foreign Language, two units in one language.

Physics or Chemistry with laboratory, one unit.

In case the student is not able to offer just this distribution, but has the full fifteen units of high school work of proper quality (or twelve units from a senior high school) he will be admitted to college, and can in most cases make up his entrance deficiency by electing a larger part of his college work in the department in which his entrance work is deficient.

One unit of high school music will be accepted, when other entrance requirements are met, if work is of proper grade and properly certified in accordance with the standards of the state department of education.

All students coming from other schools must furnish a certificate of dismissal in good standing, both as to scholarship and character.

Before being admitted as a student in Pacific College, each applicant must pay at least fifty per cent of the tuition due for that particular semester covering his or her enrollment; or, in cases where it is impossible to meet this requirement, the student must appear before a special committee appointed by the board and make satisfactory arrangements for the payment of said tuition.

At the beginning of each new semester, it shall be required that the balance of the tuition for the preceding semester shall have been paid before the applicant may enroll as a student for the new semester, and fifty per cent of the tuition for the new semester also must be paid before enrollment is permitted, except in those cases where a student appears before the special committee and makes definite arrangements covering said tuition.

All Freshmen are required to take Freshman Composition, and are advised to fill their schedule with work in the departments of Laboratory Science, Foreign Language, Social Science and Mathematics, as far as is practicable.

Advance Standing

Advance standing will be granted to students who present credentials from other colleges of acknowledged standing. Such credentials should be presented upon matriculation.

The college undertakes to make a just and careful evaluation of credits presented for advanced standing from normal schools, vocational schools and other institutions whose credits cannot be accepted merely on certification.

A student may be allowed to attempt to examine out of any college subject with the consent of the head of the department, and if the examination is successful the student will receive full credit. This examination will be of a thorough and comprehensive character, and no student will be allowed to examine out of a subject which he has already used to satisfy his college entrance requirement.

Requirements for Graduation

It is the aim of Pacific College not to produce specialists, but to give a broad general education that will fit the student to live a life, not merely to make a living. Accordingly there is a relatively large amount of prescribed work, the assumption being that a college graduate should have a considerable knowledge in a number of different fields.

QUANTITY AND QUALITY OF WORK—The bachelor's degree is conferred on candidates who have maintained a satisfactory record of conduct and character and who have satisfactorily completed 120 semester hours of work properly distributed, and have met other specific requirements for graduation.

Not less than 80 hours of the 120 shall have received a grade of 80 or better.

At least 36 hours shall be upper division work.

Two years of physical education work are required for graduation. This must be taken during the Freshman and Sophomore years, unless the student is specially excused by the faculty to take the work later.

DISTRIBUTION OF WORK—For the selection of major work, the departments of study are divided into four groups, as follows: Group I.—Philosophy and Religious Education, History and Political Science, Economics and Sociology, Psychology.

Group II.—Mathematics, Biology, Physics, Chemistry.

Group III.—Greek, Latin, German, French and Spanish.

Group IV.—English, Music, Public Speaking, Dramatics.

Each candidate for graduation must present enough work in his major group to make a total of 40 semester hours in that group, at least 18 of which shall be upper division work.

PRESCRIBED WORK—The prescribed work for all candidates for graduation is as follows:

Philosophy and Ethics, six hours; Bible and Religious Education, six hours; Social Sciences (including History), eight hours;

English and Literature, twelve hours; Science (laboratory), eight hours; Public Speaking, four hours.

Additional requirements for the different groups are as follows:

Additional requirements in Group I: Foreign Language, sixteen hours; additional Social Science, twelve hours.

Additional requirements in Group II: German or French, sixteen hours; Mathematics, twelve hours.

Additional requirements in Group III: Additional English, twelve hours.

Additional requirements in Group IV: Additional English, twelve hours; additional Social Science, eight hours.

Special provisions are made for those who continue in college the foreign language work carried in high school, or go on in Pacific College with foreign language work begun in another college.

At the beginning of the Senior year each Senior is expected to enroll for two hours of research work in preparation for his Senior thesis.

In order that a state certificate for high school teaching be secured, 15 semester hours of Education are required, which must include Educational Psychology, Principles of Education, Methods of Teaching, and Supervised Teaching. The state educational authorities ask that those of mediocre scholarship and those lacking strong character and personality shall not be encouraged to take this course for teachers.

ELECTIVE WORK—The rest of the work required for graduation may be selected from any courses for which the student is prepared, under the direction of the president and faculty.

Degrees

Students who complete their course with their major work in Group I, Group III or Group IV will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts; Group II, Bachelor of Science. These degrees, with the other privileges of the college, are open equally to men and women.

THE DEPARTMENTS

The college maintains the following departments of instruction:

- I—Philosophy and Religious Education.
- II—Psychology and Education.
- III—History and Political Science.
- IV—Economics and Sociology.
- V—English and Literature.
- VI—German and French.
- VII—Spanish.
- VIII—Mathematics and Physics.
- IX—Chemistry.
- X—Biology.
- XI—Music.

In addition to these eleven departments, instruction is also given in Public Speaking, Dramatics, Home Economics, Physical Education, etc.

2ab. SECOND YEAR SPANISH—The first semester a rapid review of Spanish grammar alternated with reading and composition. Second semester, reading of Spanish classics: El Sombrero de tres picos; El sí de las niñas, etc. Throughout the year, four hours.

101. MODERN SPANISH LITERATURE—Selections will be read from the best plays and novels of the 19th and 20th centuries, from such authors as Golds, Valera, Benavente, Blasco Ibanez. First semester, three hours.

102. READING, COMPOSITION AND CONVERSATION—A practice course for drill in the use of the language based on the reading of such selections as: La hermana San Sulpicio, Valdes; El trovador, Garcia Gutierrez; El estudiante de Salamanca, Espronceda. Second semester, three hours.

103ab. SURVEY OF SPANISH LITERATURE—A general study of the history of Spanish literature. Special attention will be given the most important writers of each period. Outside reading. Reports in Spanish. Throughout the year, three hours.

VIII. MATHEMATICS AND PHYSICS

PROFESSOR WEESNER

Mathematics

1a. COLLEGE ALGEBRA—A brief review of the fundamental principles of Algebra, such as factoring, surds and imaginaries, quadratic equations and proportion. A further study of the binomial theorem, progressions, permutations, combinations, theory of equations, determinants and logarithms. Text, Hawkes' Advanced Algebra. First semester, three hours.

1b. PLANE TRIGONOMETRY—The trigonometric functions of an angle, and the equations expressing their relations. The application of trigonometric principles to the solution of the triangle. Text, Granville's Trigonometry. Second semester, three hours.

2a. ANALYTIC GEOMETRY—A study of the properties of curves by algebraic methods. This course includes a study of the straight line, circles and conics. Text, New Analytic Geometry, Smith, Gale & Neelley. Prerequisites, courses 1a and 1b. First semester, three hours. (No credit for course 2a unless course 2b is taken.)

2b. ANALYTIC GEOMETRY—A further study of the conics, the general equation of the second degree, and an introduction to Solid Analytic Geometry. Prerequisites, courses 1a, 1b and 2a. Text, New Analytic Geometry, Smith, Gale & Neelley. Second semester, three hours.

7. SURVEYING—A course in Surveying will be offered if there is sufficient demand for it.

101a. CALCULUS—The principles of differentiation and their application to problems. Prerequisites, courses 1a, 1b, 2a and 2b. Text, Granville, Smith & Longley. First semester, four hours.

101b. CALCULUS—The principles of integration and their application to problems. Text, Granville, Smith & Longley. Prerequisite, courses 1a, 1b, 2a, 2b and 101a. Second semester, four hours.

110. HIGHER MATHEMATICS—A course in Differential Equations, or some other branch of higher mathematics will be given upon sufficient demand. Subject and hours will be arranged by instructor with those who wish to take the course.

Physics

1a. MECHANICS AND HEAT—Readings, lectures and laboratory work. Prerequisite, Trigonometry. Text, Crew's General Physics. First semester, five hours.

1b. SOUND, LIGHT, AND ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM—Readings, lectures and laboratory work. Text, Crew's General Physics. Second semester, five hours.

101. ELECTRICITY—A course covering the fundamental principles of electricity and electrical machines. Three hours.

IX. CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR SKENE

1a. GENERAL CHEMISTRY—A course in the study of the non-metallic elements and the general principles of Chemistry. Text, McPherson & Henderson's General Chemistry or equivalent. Three recitations and two laboratory periods per week. First semester, five hours. (No credit unless course 1b is taken.)

1b. GENERAL CHEMISTRY—Continuation of course 1a. The metallic elements are studied during this semester's work. Three recitations and two laboratory periods per week. Second semester, five hours.

2a. QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS—Prerequisites, courses 1a and 1b. The course consists of laboratory work on the reaction and detection of the common metals and the analysis of unknown materials, and lectures on the underlying principles of analysis and quantitative consideration of the simpler equilibrium relations. Text, Engelder's Qualitative Analysis or equivalent. Two lecture periods and two laboratory periods per week. First semester, four hours.

2b. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS—Prerequisites, courses 1a, 1b and 2a. The aim of this course is to familiarize the student with the important methods of quantitative determination of the elements by both gravimetric and volumetric methods. Special attention is given to theory and general principles as essentials for accurate laboratory work. Text, Mahn's Quantitative Analysis. Two lecture periods and two laboratory periods each week. Second semester, four hours.

101ab. ORGANIC CHEMISTRY—Prerequisites, 1a and 1b. A study of the principal classes of organic compounds, aliphatic and aromatic, with emphasis upon class reactions and structural theory. The laboratory work consists of the preparation of typical organic compounds and a study of their properties. Text, Williams' Organic Chemistry. Three recitations and two laboratories per week. Throughout the year, five hours.

102ab. PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY—Prerequisites, Physics 1a and 1b, Chemistry 1a, 1b, 2a and 2b, and Mathematics 1a, 1b, 2a and 2b, and preceded or accompanied by Mathematics 101a. An introductory course in theoretical and physical chemistry covering especially those portions of physical chemistry that apply to general chemistry. Text, Getman and Daniel's Outlines of Theoretical Chemistry. Three recitations per week. Throughout the year, three hours. (Not given 1936-37.)

103. ORGANIC PREPARATIONS—Prerequisites, Chemistry 101a and 101b. A study of the more important syntheses, such as the Grignard, Friedel-Craft, Perkins, and other reactions. One laboratory period a week. First semester, one hour.

104. INDUSTRIAL CHEMISTRY—Prerequisites, Chemistry 1a and 1b. It is recommended that the student also have had Chemistry 2a and 2b. The aim of the course is to familiarize the student with the common rocks and ores, and their occurrence and the recovery of the minerals. This course should be especially valuable for students expecting to teach general science. Two lectures a week. The second semester, two hours.

X. BIOLOGY

PROFESSOR SUTTON

1a. ZOOLOGY—A general introduction to the science of biology. The work of the first semester will include a study of the invertebrate forms of animal life. Three recitations and two laboratory periods per week. First semester, five hours.

1b. ZOOLOGY—A continuation of 1a. The vertebrate group will be the basis for work the second semester. Three recitations and two laboratory periods per week. Second semester, five hours.

1a. BOTANY—A study of the plant as an organism. This course will deal especially with the study of the cell and of the non-flowering plants. Three recitations and two laboratory periods. First semester, five hours.

1b. BOTANY—A continuation of 1a. Mosses and ferns will be studied but special emphasis in this course is on the flowering plants. Field trips will be taken and flowers classified. Second semester, five hours.

101. ADVANCED COMPARATIVE ANATOMY—A comparative study of the vertebrate group. Prerequisites, Zoology 1a and 1b. Two recitations and two laboratory periods per week. First semester, four hours.

102. CHICK EMBRYOLOGY—A study of the development of the chick. One recitation and two laboratory periods per week. Second semester, three hours.

103. SPECIAL PROBLEMS—Work will be given in either advanced Botany or Zoology as the demand justifies. Hours to be arranged.

XI. MUSIC

PROFESSOR WAGNER PROFESSOR FINLEY

Academic Music

1ab. DEVELOPMENT OF MUSIC—A general survey of the field of music; a course dealing with the origins, the historical development and the tendencies of the various musical forms and instruments. The content of music; discussion of the elements of the art, of primitive, classical, romantic and modern forms, including jazz. Explanations of harmony, counterpoint, fugue, sonata, concerto, symphony and opera. The class will hear music performed and critically estimated. A layman's course for the understanding of music historically and practically. Throughout the year, two hours.

102ab. HARMONY—A course covering from the viewpoint of key relationship both elementary and advanced harmony, analysis and the elementary forms of composition. The interval, the common chord and its inversions, the system of related keys, the dominant chord (7, 9) and keyboard harmony will be studied the first year. Two hours, throughout the year. A course requiring a performing knowledge of the piano.

103ab. HARMONY—A continuation of 102ab. The dominant chord (7, 9, 11, 13), the augmented sixth, supertonic harmony, the augmented fifth, passing sevenths, suspension, retardation, passing and changing notes, pedal point, transition and figured bass. Strophe, binary, ternary and art song forms will be studied. The composition of original hymns, chorals, songs and piano pieces. Throughout the year, two hours.

ADVANCED MUSIC—Special courses in more advanced music; counterpoint, orchestration, appreciation of music, etc., will be offered as there is call for them.

Practical Music

VOICE—A thorough three years' course in voice culture is offered. Of the pupil completing the course in voice culture are required two years (or their equivalent) of work at the piano and one year (or its equivalent) of work in harmony.

PIANO—Four years of work are offered in piano. A certificate will be issued on the completion of three full years of work, and a diploma for the full four years course. The course in harmony is required as part of the full course.

ORCHESTRA—An orchestra will be organized again the coming year if there is sufficient interest. For those taking full work in piano there will be no fee for orchestral instruction; for others the fee will be $5 for the year.

GLEE CLUB—As usual there will be glee clubs for both men and women. Besides local concerts, the glee clubs will travel, as heretofore. For those taking full vocal work there will be no fee for work in the glee club; the fee for others will be $5 for the year.

Music Tuition

All tuitions and fees in the music department are payable to the treasurer of the college at the beginning of the semester, as are other tuitions. The rates will be as follows:

Private lessons in Voice, one lesson per week, $27.00 per semester.

Private lessons in Piano, one lesson per week, $27.00 per semester.

Orchestra fee (for those not taking regular piano lessons), $5 per year.

Glee club fee (for those not taking regular voice lessons), $5 per year.

Tuition for academic music is on the same basis as other regular college work.

OTHER COLLEGE WORK

In addition to the college departments described, other work is given as follows:

Public Speaking

1. PUBLIC SPEAKING—A foundation course in the essentials of public speaking, with work in voice analysis and speech preparation, including practical work by the student. First semester, two hours.

2. EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING—A practical course in various forms of public speaking. Numerous references will be assigned to individual students who will report same to the class. Every effort will be made to have each student do a maximum amount of actual speaking on a wide variety of topics. Second semester, two hours.

3. ADVANCED PUBLIC SPEAKING—A study of various forms of public speech for the purposes of instruction, conviction, and persuasion. Each member of the class will be required to write and deliver in public an original oration. First semester, two hours.

4. FORENSICS—A study of the principles of argumentation and the construction of briefs. Textbook work supplemented by debates in class and in public. Open to all students. Text, Baird's Public Discussion and Debate. Second semester, two hours.

Dramatics

DRAMATICS 1a—A course designed to develop principles of character analysis and interpretation, and theories of acting. A character recital will be required of each student. Practical application of theory will be made in production of one-act plays. First semester, two hours.

DRAMATICS 1b—This is a practical course in the problems of play production to prepare students to take part in and direct dramatic productions. Using the one-act play, the group will study problems of casting, rehearsing, make-up, costuming, stage setting and lighting. Open to those who have had 1a or its equivalent. Second semester, two hours.

Home Economics

1. FOODS—A foundation course in the study of foods, including First semester, three hours. (Not given 1936-37.)

2. CLOTHING—Individual projects, adapted to the student's ing preparation, preservation, marketing and balancing of menus. previous preparation. Second semester, three hours. (Not given 1936-37.)

Physical Education

The Department of Physical Education aims to develop in all students the qualities of physical vigor, and such traits of character as courage, persistence, confidence, sound judgment, accuracy and fair play. It also aims at acquainting the individual with the capabilities, limitations and control of the body.

The work is conducted in separate divisions for men and women, each with a faculty director. Each student is expected to spend not less than two hours each week in some form of active recreation. This work is required for Freshmen and Sophomores. Gymnasium classes are provided for those who do not care to enter one of the major sports. For those who do desire it, an opportunity is offered to specialize in one or more of the major sports, such as football, basketball, baseball, tennis, track, etc. The college maintains and encourages both intramural and intercollegiate sports.

The work is organized with the idea not only of developing the student as an athlete but giving him an opportunity for directing and coaching.

All athletic sports and activities are under the supervision and control of the faculty physical education director.

Pre-professional Courses

Pacific College is primarily a college of liberal arts, and its chief aim is to give an adequate four-year course in arts and sciences which will furnish thorough preparation for a full, useful, and happy life. There are unquestionable advantages in the four-year liberal arts course before the student specializes in graduate work, medical study, or special work in law, engineering, theology, etc.

Where a student desires, however, to complete his professional preparation in the shortest possible time, he can choose from the Pacific College course those studies which will most definitely fit into his professional course later.

If, for instance, he desires to specialize in engineering, he will find in Pacific College courses in Trigonometry, College Algebra, Analytic Geometry, Calculus, Physics, English Composition, Surveying, Economics, American Government, General Chemistry, Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis, Extemporaneous Speaking, and various other courses which fit into definite courses offered in engineering in standard technical schools.

If he is interested in a pre-medical course he will find in Pacific College courses in Biology, Mathematics, General, Analytic and Organic Chemistry, Foreign Language, Social Sciences, Written English, Physics, Physiology, and other subjects which fit into the pre-medical curriculum of universities offering pre-medical courses.

If he desires a pre-law course he will find in the Pacific College curriculum English and American History, Mathematics, Sciences, Extemporaneous Speaking, survey courses in English Literature, Political Science, Economics, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology, and other subjects included in the pre-law curriculum of standard law schools.

While Pacific College does not attempt to be definitely a pre-law, pre-medical, or pre-engineering school, every year students are in attendance at Pacific College who are making their definite preparation to take their courses in these subjects in other schools without completing their work for graduation in Pacific College.

Opportunities and Needs

Pacific College was established and has been maintained at the cost of sacrifice and devotion nothing less than heroic. Friends of the college have in times past jeopardized every dollar of their earthly possessions in assuming the obligations necessary to make possible the splendid work that the institution has done in the past, a work whose magnitude and usefulness is out of all proportion to the size of the school. And the college must continue to advance, for the opportunity for greater work is clearly before it. It is confidently believed that in no college in the Pacific Northwest will a given sum invested for endowment purposes aid so many worthy young men and women toward an education that will mean a more useful life and a greater career. Those who have money to give for benevolent purposes, in large or small amounts, are urged to investigate the needs and the opportunities of Pacific College.

Do It Now

There are many who clearly recognize their responsibility to make every dollar of their money do the most possible good in the world. Many expect some day to dispose of their property by bequest so that it will do good in the world after they are gone. But too many neglect it, and possessions that they intended should serve God and humanity after their departure come into the hands of those who do not need them and are not helped by them. If you have something to give to Pacific College, do it now. And if you have any property that you can leave to help the college in its work for the men and women after you are gone, do not neglect to provide for the college in your will. Do it now!

Bequests and Other Gifts

Those who are not in position to give at once to the college have other means of helping in the future support of the school. One is by bequeathing part or all of their estate to Pacific College. The other and better way, which will make it surer that the college will actually receive the support desired to be given, is to give the college a deed to the property that is to be given, the giver retaining a life lease upon it. This will give him the use and income from the property during his life, but will insure the college against the loss of the property through legal technicalities or otherwise after the death of the giver.

Or a note payable on or before decease, may be given.

Or a gift may be made in the form of an annuity, the giver to have the income from the gift during life.

Application for Admission

The following application for admission should be filled out and mailed in advance to the president of the college. The recommendation should be signed by two well-known persons of the community from which the student comes. The college would prefer that one of those who recommend the applicant should be a minister, if possible the pastor of the prospective student. The other may be a teacher, preferably the principal of the high school from which the student comes, or a business or professional man, or other responsible person who knows the applicant.
